

TRADE IS WAITING FOR THE RETAILER.

BUSINESS IS NOT YET IN NORMAL CONDITION.

Low Prices in Farm Staples Hinder Purchases for Consumption—Influence of the Government Report Upon Markets—Failures for the Week Reported by Dun.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly review of trade, says: Business is still waiting for the development of retail trade. There is a little better demand in some industries, but not so good in others. Lower prices for the great farm staples and lower wages in some establishments hinder purchases for consumption, while political interest and uncertainty also have some retarding influence. Meanwhile, large imports and small exports of merchandise, with inadequate employment for money here are raising the rates of foreign exchange so that possibilities of gold exports somewhat affect the stock market.

The government crop reports are not greatly trusted and yet have an influence, and actually exaggerate the tendency toward lower prices because they are supposed to report all the crops too low. Men calmly reckon that if the government report indicates over 400,000,000 bushels of wheat the crop must be over 500,000,000 bushels, and though western receipts for the week have been only 4,469,075 bushels, against 6,335,302 last year, and Atlantic exports only 647,244 bushels, against 900,564 last year, the price is slightly lower. Corn has been stronger, for receipts are hardly a quarter and exports barely an eighth of last year, and the question is whether the actual yield, if above the government estimate, may not prove lower than has been supposed. The cotton returns are more confusing, but all point to a yield so far above that indicated by the government that its statement has been followed by a further decline for the week of one quarter. The receipts thus far hardly encourage extremely large estimates, and yet it is to be considered that the crop was later than usual.

The iron industry records larger production in September than in any other month this year, but as prices are gradually weakening because of insufficient demand for finished products, some works are preparing to close or shorten time.

The woolen mills still have numerous belated orders for fall goods, but the demand for spring does not increase, though in nearly all the lower priced products domestic makers appear able to command most of the business that exists. Sales of wool have been 4,877,949 pounds, against 2,500,452 last year and 7,090,600 in 1892, and prices are a shade weaker for fine fleeces, Ohio XX selling at 17½ cents at Philadelphia, but combing and territory wool are steady.

Failures for the week ending Oct. 4 show liabilities of $1,714,276, of which $805,885 are of manufacturing and $892,391 of trading concerns. There have been 231 in the United States, against 393 last year, and 43 in Canada, against 42 last year.

SHERMAN ON SILVER.

The Ohio Senator Gives His Views on the White Metal.

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 13.—An enthusiastic audience greeted Senator John Sherman in Assembly hall last night. The senator confined himself chiefly to the tariff and silver. On the latter, recently brought into the place of prominence by the democratic state committee, he spoke with great positiveness, describing in detail the evils which he declared would result from free coinage. Among other things he said: "I am a thorough believer in bimetalism. I believe that both gold and silver are necessary metals for coinage into money to measure the value of all other productions of human industry. But there must be some fixed ratio of value between the two metals. They must be standards of value not only for other productions but for each other. Every nation that uses gold as its standard also uses silver for minor coins and regulates the value and number of these coins. Free coinage would debase our money, expel or hoard all our gold, impair the security and redemption of our United States notes and national bank notes and place our credit and currency on the position of Brazil, Argentina and Mexico."

VIRGINIA AND CALIFORNIA TRAIN ROBBERS FREE.

Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Said to be the Sum Secured by the Darling Hold-Up of the Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Train Last Night.

RICHMOND, Oct. 13.—Nothing has been heard up to 2 o'clock this afternoon from the robbers who held up the express on the Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac railroad last night. The amount of their plunder is estimated at between one hundred and fifty and two hundred thousand dollars. The train was held up near Quantico. The engineer and fireman were forced from their engine and the engine was cut loose and sent ahead. The express car was then entered, the messengers covered with pistols, and the safe was robbed. The runaway locomotive was stopped at Quantico by obstructing the track.

It is said here that there was an unusually large amount of money on the train, probably $50,000. The robbers, seven in number, were masked. The railway company has offered $1,000 reward for the arrest of any of the robbers.

The express messenger, B. F. Crutchfield, and his helper, H. Murray, barred the doors of the express car, but these were blown open with dynamite. After the robbery the thieves made off with their booty in the direction of the Potomac river, where it is supposed they had a boat in waiting to take them to the Maryland side. None of the robbers entered the passenger coaches.

The operator at Brooks, six miles from Quantico, discovered that the engine was "wild" as it passed his station and telegraphed to Quantico, where a switch was thrown so that it was brought into collision with two loaded freight cars and wrecked. Had the locomotive been permitted to pass Quantico it would have collided with the south-bound passenger train.

ROADS AND BRIDGES CRUSHED.

Eleven Thousand Pounds of granite Dragged Ten Miles Through Mud

Bridges went down and dirt roads crumbled under the weight of the granite monument that was dragged from Edgerton to Albion Prairie. The monument weighed 11,000 pounds. It is not an uncommon thing in cities on pavement to move a weight of that character, but on the country roads that are soft and muddy it is quite another matter. A truck weighing 3,000 pounds was obtained in Janesville for transporting the block. Then a twelve horse power traction engine was attached and the work of moving it ten miles into the country commenced. The roads were soft from the rain of the night before and both the truck and engine sank deep in the mud of the newly made turnpikes. When about two miles north of town the whole outfit became stalled and had to be left over night. By morning the truck had sunk into the soft ground to the axles and had to be raised with jack screws and tackle. The stone was finally brought to its destination on Tuesday, but it was a long and tedious trip before it reached there. One or two bridges broke under the heavy weight of the outfit, but by frequent changes from the engine to horses, the job was accomplished.

FIRST FORTNIGHTLY MEETING.

Miss Carolyn Kimball Opens the Discussion of George Eliot's 'Romola.'

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Treat entertained the Fortnightly club last evening at their pleasant Third ward home. The program included the study of Chapters 1 to 8 of George Eliot's 'Romola' and a paper on the life of its author was read. Miss Carolyn Kimball acted as leader of the discussion and the meeting was one that all enjoyed both socially and from a literary standpoint.

ODD STORIES TOLD BY THE DIRECTORY.

REGIMENTS OF SMITHS BROWNS AND SULLIVANS.

New List of Janesville People Gives a Suggestion For Plenty of Romancing Over the Names—As Disconnected as Webster's Dictionary But Much More Interesting.

Janesville's new directory tells some queer stories.

For instance?

Well, if any one should ask you if you "had seen Acheson?" you would at once think they meant the chief of police, and probably they would, yet Robert and George both live in Monterey. Then there are the Allens. There's an unlucky number of them. 13. Of course almost everybody knows H. V. Allen of Kueff & Allen, and Westly Allen the roofer, but how many who know either of these two could tell who all the others were? The Andersons number 18. School Commissioner A. G. Anderson heads the list in the new book and Thomas Anderson, the custom tailor, ends it with the farmer and carpenter, the woodturner, the baker and real estate man, the tobacco worker, the barber and all the others in between. There are four angels in town, but they spell it "Angell" and all belong to the same family, that of R. R. Angell, the well known machinist.

Then you turn to "B."

The first name is that of F. H. Baack, the clothier, the only man in town who has two "a's" in the front section of his name. There is no one else in town of that name, but when you get down a few lines further you strike the thirteen Baileys. There are three dry goods men, four in the cotton batting and twine business; one farmer and one machinist in addition to several others.

Bakers There By the Score.

There are twenty bakers on the next two pages including a druggist, a real estate man, a cigar maker, a printer, two engineers, three carpenters, two painters and a traveling man, not to speak of several others.

There are nine Baldwins besides B. H., fifteen Barrons, two Beans, three Bears, six Beers, six Bells, eighteen Bennetts—including a judge, two real estate men, an expressman, a marble cutter, a railroad roadmaster, a dentist and a baker beside several clerks and laborers. Seven Benwits, four Biers, one Bird, nine Birminghams, eleven Blises, one Black, one Blood, three Blows, a pair of Boots, one Borde, one Boss, ten Bostwicks, one Bray, one Brees, one Brogan, six Brooks. Thirty-seven Browns get along without getting mixed up and eighteen Buggs precede on the list three Bulls, five Bumps, one Bunk and two Bunts. Of Buntsthere are eight, and of Burdicks fourteen. Ten Burns came next and are followed by three Burrs, nine Butlers and one Butter.

The Secrets of the C's.

Under "C" you'll find a Calf, three Canaries, three Cannons, eight Capenters, four Carrs, a Carrier, eight Cases, one Chestnut, two Childs, a Cherry, eight Churches, fifty-six Clarks, whose names take up nearly two pages, two Clydes, two Cobbs, fifteen Collins, six Cones, twenty Connors, eighteen Conroys, eleven Cooks, five Coons, five Crows and Crowses, fifteen Cullens, seven of whom live on Franklin street and six in "Blackhawk."

"D" develops five Days, one Dent, three Diehls, one Dish, two Dragers, four Drapers, one Dresser, one Drum, seven Dukes. Four Farmers are found under "F," beside four Fathers, one Fiddle, one Field, two Finches, four Fishes and several Fishers, one Flint (not the doctor but a teamster instead), one Flood, one Foote, sixteen Fords, nine Foxes and two Fosters.

"G" starts out with a Gable and includes a Gallup, four Gessers, six Glasses, three Gienns, a Goul, a Goselin, eight Graves, two Greatsingers, seventeen or eighteen Greens, fifteen Griffins, six Groves and one Gruel.

Seventeen Halls give "H" a start and six Hollorans help. Then come four Harpers, one Harp and fourteen Harries have a Hart apiece. Two Heads precede seven Heels, who are followed by six Hellers. Eleven Hills precede one Hiller, and eight Hogans are listed beside the "Big man." Thirteen Horns and six Horens precede the only Horner and seven Hunts come before seven Hunters and one Huntress.

"J" brings twelve Jackmans, twenty Johnsons, twenty-six Joneses, one Josh, eighteen Joyces and one Judge.

Plenty of Kings and Kaisers.

"K" starts out well, supported by six Kanes, a Kaiser, twenty-one Kings that have a good lead on the only Kingman. Two Lakes, two Lanes and one Leaf, add to the scenic effect under "L," and then comes fourteen Leabys beside Thomas B., six of whom are railroad men. Fifteen Lees and one Lick, and a Legge comes ahead of a Leitfoot; while Lynches and Lyons close the page.

Mc's are thick, and come ahead of the six Mackins. There is one Malady, five Marshes, Three Marshalls, one Mason, two Miners and two Minors, one Mole and one Money. There is also one Moon.

Twenty-one Nashes give "N" a start off, and fourteen Nicholls and Nickels follow. Two Nightengales precede one Nobs and a Nun.

Twenty-one Palmers and two Peacocks are near one Peake. Two Pence are also scheduled before one Penny. Two Piersons come before twelve Petersons, and two Picketts precede one Post. There are six Prices for four Puchers, and one Pool is equal to five Pones.

There are eight Quirks in the "Q's," and in the "R's" one Ribbi starts out reinforced by one Rafter and twenty-three Richardsons, four riders, three Rings, thirteen Robinsons, two Roofs, one Rod and three Rocks, two Roots and Rosses come ahead of a Row and three Rows. One Rush and nineteen Roans close the page.

Over In the Back of the Book.

Three Saddler, one Saker and two Sales and one Sell start the "S" division. Two Saxtons and three Shanks lead the Shearers and Shivers and seven Shields hold off one Spear, one Splitter and two Showers. Two Skinners proceed seventy-nine Smiths and seven Sporns are near five Stesses. While there are six Steeds there are but one Stamper. Eighteen are named Stevens while there are four Stones, five Storms. Twenty-two Sullivans also reside here, five of whom are named John, but none of them John L.

Five fall in line before Tallmans on the "T" page. Twenty-two Taylors come along next and are followed by two Teals, three Thorns, one Toole, two Treats four Trips, two Tubbs, a Tyler and two Turners.

"W" starts off with one Waggoner and six Walkers. Nineteen Walshes, one Waltz, thirteen Wards and four Weavers come before two Webbs and thirty Welshes. Six Wells, eight Wheelers, two Wheelocks, thirty-seven Williams and twenty-eight Woods.

THIEVES WELL PAID FOR A NIGHT'S WORK

FRANK D. HALL'S JOHNSTOWN STORE WAS LOOTED.

Thirty or Forty Dollars in Money Besides a Gold Watch Worth Eighteen Dollars and a Gold Ring the Plunder Secured—No Clue Found By Officers.

Burglars worked at Johnstown last night and thirty or forty dollars in cash, an eighteen dollar gold watch and a gold ring was the reward of their labors. Frank D. Hall's store was the object of their attack and tools stolen from a neighboring blacksmith shop were used to effect an entrance. Mr. Hall runs a general store and has suffered from the visit of thieves once or twice before. Chief Acheson was notified of the burglary this morning. It begins to look as if the gang who have been robbing stores in the smaller settlements and villages were well organized and skillful as they leave no tracks behind them and are seldom heard from again. The officers are handicapped by not knowing of the offense until after the thieves have had a chance to reach a railroad station, and when they once get into Chicago or Milwaukee it is like looking for a needle in a haystack to find them.

Smith's full orchestra has been engaged and to comment upon this portion of the entertainment is needless.

HER DUTY TO TELL.

One of the Loveliest of Ladies Writes Our Readers a Letter They Will Never Forget. It Is a Grand Letter and Well Worth Reading.

MISS E. BURKE.

We have received this remarkably interesting letter, with the accompanying beautiful portrait from Miss E. Burke, of Amoskeag, N. H., and we place them before our readers:

"Soon after graduating from school I was stricken down with nervous prostration, and no one but God knows how I have suffered.

"I was so nervous that the least thing would cause my heart to palpitate. I was also troubled with severe headache and dizziness, which unfitted me for any mental work. I tried several highly recommended compounds but they did me no good.

"At last, I decided to give Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy a trial. What a blessing it has proved to me! I can truly say that I owe my present excellent health to Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. We keep it in the house, as it cures a sick headache or neuralgia in every case and gives immediate relief.

"I am so grateful for the good this wonderful remedy has done me, and in order that other poor sufferers may be pointed to the path of health, I deem it my duty to state what Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has done for me. My faith is so strong in this grand medicine which has done me so much good, that I urge others to use it and get well. I have recommended it to several who have tried it and been cured."

Here is the voluntary testimony of a most estimable lady, that she was cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

It is a wonderful tribute to the great value of this medicine in curing disease. There is a large class of people who, while not exactly sick, suffer from extreme nervousness, feel weak and tired, lack their old-time strength and ambition. They do not eat or sleep well, wake mornings tired, with dull feeling head and no inclination to take hold of their work.

To all such we would recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, for it will certainly give strong nerves and vigorous bodies—in fact will make you strong and well.

This medicine is recommended by doctors. It is not a patent medicine but the prescription of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York city.

He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that this medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by anyone at any time free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

HE AND SHE.

A young woman at Princess Anna, Md., died a few days ago from the effects of swallowing chewing gum.

Six hundred and eight women recently applied for a poorly-paid place as mail sorter in an English postoffice.

C. P. Villiers, the father of the English house of commons, is 92 years old, but still attends the house regularly and often speaks.

Noah Shanks, a Brownsville, Oregon, boy, got sick, as might have been expected, from his phenomenal feat of eating at a single sitting seventeen bologna sausages.

In Boston are the headquarters of the Ramabai association, whose purpose it is to rescue child widows in India. This society is flourishing, and reports an income of $61,784.

The shah of Persia, is a photographer of no mean skill. In his travels about his domain he carries with him a camera, which he uses on any bit of landscape striking his fancy.

Virtue is not always its own sole reward. James Haysman, a New York expressman, who found on the street a check for $20,000, payable to Russell Sage, took it to his office and received a $1 bill for his honesty.

A negro had a streak of luck while fishing in the Flint river, near Albany, Ga. His line became tangled in something, which proved to be a lady's gold necklace, which had evidently laid at the bottom of the river for many years.

Everybody smokes in Japan. The pipe holds a little wad of fine cut tobacco as big as a pea. It is fired, and the smoker takes one long whiff, blowing the smoke in a cloud from his mouth and nose. The ladies have pipes with longer stems than the men, and if one of them wishes to show a gentleman a special mark of favor, she lights her pipe, takes half a whiff, hands it to him and lets him finish out the whiff.

WITS AT WORK.

Banks—What do you think of the story about Jonah being three days inside of the whale? Tanks—It's a good thing. I've given my wife worse excuses than that.

Sally—Ethel and I are so interested in you! Jim—Kind, certainly; but why? Ethel—We had our fortunes

MASCULINITIES.

Higgs—Figgs is prospering, isn't he? Hatch—Oh, yes. He's got now to where he can sass his butcher.

In the mind of Lyman Preston, of Meriden, Conn., advertising pays. He and Dorothy L. Owen were married recently through the medium of an advertisement inserted by Preston.

Marshal Canrobert, probably the oldest living holder of a baton, recently celebrated his 86th birthday. He is the pet of his aunt, Mme. Wilkinson, who is hale and hearty in her 102d year.

In the hurry and anxiety of his coming wedding, a Boston groom recently forgot about procuring his license to wed until the ceremony was about to begin. As a result the marriage had to be postponed until the next day.

Another lord has drifted into trade—the earl of Harrington, known as an enthusiastic collector of snuff boxes, has opened a fruiterer's shop in London. It will be supplied from his gardens, which are among the finest in England.

A Parisian amateur book collector, M. Georges Salomon, has the largest collection in existence of the smallest books in the world. In the entire list of over 700 volumes none of them is larger than one inch wide by two inches high.

The closing of New York gambling houses under the recent pressure has driven gamblers in large numbers to seek game on foreign shores. One of the worst effects of the exodus has been the growth of gambling on board outgoing steamers to Europe.

The Newsdealer—Do you think, Miss Primley, that that style of literature is just the proper thing for a Sunday school teacher? Miss Primley—Well, not exactly, of course; but, you see, I must keep posted so as to be able to caution my scholars.

In Russia people may not wed the fourth time, nor after they are eighty years old. In France, the wife whose husband objects seriously to her going on the stage, makes herself liable to divorce by persisting in her artistic desire. In Germany and Roumania "insuperable aversion" is enough. But in Portugal civilization touches the high water mark. There, if a wife publishes literary works without the husband's consent, the law frees him at once.

SCROFULA

Miss Della Stevens, of Boston, Mass., writes: "I have always suffered from hereditary Scrofula, for which I tried various remedies, and many reliable physicians, but none relieved me. After taking six bottles of Dr. Le Brun's Scrofula Cure, I am very grateful to you. I feel that I have been saved from a life of untold agony, and shall take pleasure in speaking only words of praise for the wonderful medicine, and in recommending it to all."

LOVE $270,000 IN SAVING $20,000. According to democratic figures the Dodge county farmers save $20,000 this year on the taxes. Take this rose-colored story at its face value.

During the same twelve months those Dodge county men have lost by the reduced tariff on barley $269,386.05.

This is what the democracy have stolen from the farmers of one county, to say nothing of the fleecing they have been subjected to in the matter of wool and other products.

Will the reduction of $20,000 in their state tax compensate these Dodge county farmers for this loss of $269,386.05? And yet that is just what the state democracy has the gall to attempt to make them believe.

There are fools and fools in this world, but there are mighty few of any kind among the farmers of Wisconsin who are idiotic enough to believe that they make money by losing $269,386.05 to win $20,000.

Dr. McGlynn should be consistent. In a recent address against the adoption of extreme ideas he said that naturalized citizens made the best Americans.

If that isn't an extreme idea we plead guilty to inability to recognize one.

Senator Hill came nearer to speaking the literal truth than when he said: "The democratic party is confronted with a great crisis, which substantially involves its existence as a political organization."

It keeps Rock county people busy making lists of the democrats who have become republicans. The republicans who are switching back to free trade and forty-cent wheat are scarcer than hen's teeth.

They are even expecting to elect a republican congressman in Texas, strange as that may sound. This expectation may be realized, but we shouldn't advise anybody to risk anything on it.

Adm. St. venon must have lost his wits when he said that he knew no reason why a man who was once a democrat should ever be anything else, or he must know very little.

The democratic candidate for the United States senate from Michigan, has a name that ought to be enough to keep any man out of the senate—Uhl.

Perhaps Senator Hill accepted the nomination in order that he may have the pleasure of blaming the Cleveland democrats for his defeat.

As Secretary Gresham refuses to make democratic campaign speeches he might put in his spare time figuring up the value of the democratic pre-idential nomination in 1896.

Cheap sugar before election is the result of a deal between the democratic bosses and the sugar trust.

The trust will get even by raising the price after election.

One of the democratic troubles in Georgia was lack of offices enough to go around, but Hoke Smith was their worst.

The Mormons propose getting ahead of the W. C. T. U. by including tea in the list of total abstinence articles.

WORDS OF WISDOM. Theory is the childhood of fact.

The worst company for some men is themselves.

Who makes a quick use of the moment is a genius of prudence.

The one who nurses grief is not any wiser than the one who feeds a tiger.

No man has begun the battle of life until he crosses swords with himself.

Discouragement is often pride wounded, though it resemble humility.

Though a man without money is poor, a man with nothing but money is still poorer.

When tempted to do wrong, every man ought to remember that he is some boy's hero.

If we could look deeper into the hearts of people, it wouldn't be so hard for us to love them.

The great thing in this world is not so much where we are, but in what direction we are moving.

If it were not so hard for woman to take care of herself there wouldn't be so many unhappy marriages.

If everybody's children were as good as their neighbors think they ought to be, the sun would never set.

Action and self-renunciation lead alike to happiness; for he who either acts or denies himself reaps the harvest of both virtues.

Right action, undertaken heedless of consequences, is indeed renunciation.

QUEER ACCIDENT.

While Walking Backward and Leading a Team Cox Accidentally Struck a Telephone Pole and the Tongue of the Wagon Nearly Spitted Him—Recovery Hardly Hoped For.

A VERY peculiar accident may kill Owen Cox, of Turtle, although an operation has been performed in hopes of saving his life. Cox was walking backward, leading his team over the St. Paul railroad track, and accidentally backed up to a telegraph pole. He had on the wagon a very heavy load of iron, and as the team was pulling up with much force, the pole of the wagon struck him in the chest, breaking the pole off and holding him against the telegraph pole for several minutes. When released, it was found that several of his ribs were broken, and that a piece of rib had been driven through his lung. Four physicians remained with the suffering man all night. His recovery is very doubtful.

RAKING THE COUNTY
FOR A HORSE THIEFWILLIAM S. THOM'S STABLE WAS ROBBED.

Anti Horse Thief Society Turn Out to Run Down the Robber But So Far Without Avail Although they Think They Have Him Located in the Woods.

Officers of the Anti Horse Thief Society are watching the woods south of Clinton in hopes of capturing the man who took a horse and single harness from the barn of W. S. Thom, who lives two and one-half miles west of Clinton. The theft was not discovered until morning and the thief evidently had covered a good many miles before a search could be instituted.

When Thom arose and went to the barn, he saw the barn door open and noticed that the horse was gone, but concluded that it was somewhere nearby; so he milked the cows before looking further. But when he came back to the barn and found that the harness was gone, too, he changed his mind as to the whereabouts of the horse, and before the day had dawned, men and boys were scouring the country in all directions, some on horses, some on the trains and others on bicycles, but without avail. They think the thief is lurking in the woods somewhere south of Clinton. The stolen horse was a buckskin gelding, and fifty dollars reward is offered.

THEY FAVOR EARLY CLOSING.

Janesville Jewelers Tell Why They Endorse the Six-O'clock Rule.

EDITOR GAZETTE—We do not agree with the merchant interviewed in last night's Gazette, regarding early closing. Live towns everywhere are adopting the early-closing plan. Why should shop keepers and their employees be expected to live with from three to six hours less rest than the average laborer? The duties within the four walls of a busy store are as fatiguing as the average work anywhere.

Sales might be made by keeping open until midnight and on Sunday, but would the total yearly amount be greater, and if so, would the extra profit pay for the health, the knowledge, the rest or the pleasure lost by those who would be liberated through early and Sunday closing?

We have stuck to the early closing business longer than some, and our business has increased constantly, so perhaps we are prejudiced and incompetent to argue.

We have attributed the increase partially to early closing, but if that is so discouraging to the trade, then our success must be entirely due to our very attractive stock and low prices.

We have Janesville's best interests, and the accommodation of our customers always in mind; but we desire to put ourselves on record as being in favor of early closing all the year round, the month of December excepted. Yours very respectfully,

A. F. HALL & Co.,
"The Reliable Jewelers."

GREATER DEMAND FOR '92 TOBACCO

Wisconsin Leaf Finds Favor Among the Manufacturers in the East.

Wisconsin '92 leaf is becoming deservedly popular among cigar men. Slow but steady call of reliable cigar manufacturers for cigar leaf stock has produced a feeling of confidence that trade has entered upon a course of legitimate increase. The movement in cured leaf continues at about the same pace as for a few weeks past, when the aggregate sales must foot up to several thousands and cases of all kinds. The remainder of the '92 crop seem to be quite eagerly sought after at prices too considerably in advance of a few months ago. It is the same old story where there is little to be had, the dealer want it and want it bad. The '93 crop is also selling quite freely and choice selections are in a little better demand.

ORTON STEPS OUT OF THE DEMOCRACY.PROMINENT BELLOIT ATTORNEY
HAS HAD ENOUGH.

Says He Would Like to See Free Trade But That He Cannot Stomach the Corruption Engendered By a Democratic Administration—Bitter Against the Party.

Another prominent democrat to announce his intention of voting the republican ticket this fall is O. H. Norton, a Beloit lawyer and a life long democrat. He says while he is a free trader and while the democratic party is the free trade party, it has ceased to command the respect of honest men, in his opinion, and he is now with the republicans.

Newland company of Detroit will be with us for one or two days. This concern gave us a far opening in 1892 and all garments sold then have given perfect satisfaction. Seal skin garments their specialty. All the leading furs will be shown. J. M. Eastwick & Sons.

An Eccentric Physician.

Professor Zacharin, the czar's physician, is extremely eccentric. When he is called to attend a patient special arrangements must be made in the house; all dogs must be kept out of the way, all clocks must be stopped and all doors must be thrown wide open. When he asks questions regarding a patient he permits but one word in answer—"yea" or "nay."

No Noise Necessary.

We're right in the cloak business, and although we don't make as much noise about it as some we make prices in nobby stylish garments that none match.

SMALL, BUT WIDE AWAKE.

The Little Lady Did Not Take Kindly to Being Questioned.

She was a cute, pretty little thing, so small that her feet didn't touch the floor of the car. It worried her, too, for occasionally she impatiently tugged away at her skirt to hide the display of silken black hose. A large, mouthy, self-satisfied man took a seat beside her.

"On your way home, little girl?" he asked.

She stared an instant, then smiled and replied precociously:

"Oh, yes, sir."

"Been shopping?"

"Oh, yes, sir," she said, with an awkward little jump.

"What have you in your bundle?" asked the inquisitive man. "Something nice for lunch, I dare say."

"Oh, yes, if you please, sir," she said, "I have some tea."

"Isn't your ma afraid to let you go down alone?" he asked after a pause.

"In daytime?" she said, in surprise.

"Oh, no, sir. The fact is," she said as the car stopped and she arose, "mother died three weeks after my marriage and she doesn't care whether I go out at night or not. The chances are that hubby would kick if I went out alone."

And then as she looked him square in the face he noted with astonishment that her hair was just turning gray.

Had Both Tusks and Horns.

The skeleton of some queer extinct amphibious animal unearthed at Shellville, Cal., measures twelve feet from the cranium to the tip of the tail. The under jaw is four feet long. The fore legs are each five feet in length, and the hind ones, which resemble "flippers" more than true legs, are only eighteen inches long, and jointed only at the hip. Two strong tusks project from the upper jaw, and on the head are situated two horns of three prongs each. It was found in a clay bed twenty feet beneath the surface.

It Comes From Oregon.

Much of the fine fruit which is sold on the street stands as a California product comes in reality from Oregon, and the natives of the latter state are beginning to grow jealous of their big sister stealing their thunder. An Oregon man, now in New York, says that all the best Oregon fruit is bought by Californians and shipped East as a California product.

Don't Offer a Reward

For your lost appetite. All know that it is a valuable piece of personal property, but why go to the expense when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will restore it to you. A course of that unparalleled tonic and corrective not only induces a return of the relish for food, but cures upon the stomach the power to gratify appetite with unpleasing sensations afterward. For the purpose of quickening digestion, arousing a dormant liver or kidneys, and establishing regularity of the bowels, no medicine can exert this gentle family cordial, in which the purest botanical elements of the highest efficacy. Avoid the fiery unalloyed stimulants of commerce as a means of arousing inactivity of any of the organs above mentioned, and use, instead, the Bitters. This professionally sanctioned medicine remedies malarial and rheumatic ailments.

A railway which the Germans have built in Asia Minor, extending from Ismid, a harbor about sixty miles east of Constantinople, east by south to Angora, has as little wood in it, perhaps, as any in the world. Not only the rails and bridges, but the ties and telegraph poles are of iron.

Ely's Cream Balm is specially adapted as a remedy for catarrh which is aggravated by alkaline dust and dry winds.—W. A. Hover, Druggist, Denver.

My catarrh was very bad. For thirty years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the balm. J. W. Mathewson (Lawyer), Pawtucket, R. I.

Under the espionage of the gallant and witty cashier a party of ladies were going through the vaults of a big bank and gazing with awe at the wads of wealth stored therein. ## OUR POLICY.

When we opened our store it was with the fixed determination to use every effort to get together only goods of the most reliable quality and distribute them at the lowest consistent prices—to bring our customers as near the first cost of production as possible by doing away with the profits of immediate dealers. This we have done through our superior facilities. From this policy we have never swerved nor wavered, and those who deal with us realize that as we added each new department they have been enabled to buy the goods lower than ever before, because our first aim has been to get prices down to a legitimate basis and the assortments larger and more complete than any other. Our store is three hundred and sixty-five times better than it was a year ago, every day has been devoted to improving our stocks, our system and our service, and every day will continue to be devoted to improving. We never under any circumstances make exaggerated statements, and our advertisements are always fully sustained by the goods shown—a fact easily verified by investigating those offered to-day.

BROWN BROS. & LINCOLN.

"The Hustlers."

The Old Story Retold.

A fox just at the time of the vintage, stole into a vineyard, where the grapes ripe and sunny were trellised up on high, in a most tempting manner. He made many a jump after the luscious prize, but failed in all his attempts; he muttered as he retreated, "Well what does it matter, the grapes are sour?" We took along a step ladder and now we are feasting on the choicest of the vineyard. You have a pressing invitation to join us. Our envious neighbors are howling with rage at our constantly increasing trade. We pay no attention, barking dogs never bite. You don't care if you save money in buying your fall shoes and we don't care, if we are able to sell you.
